

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER
(approved May, 2013)

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to (a) key compensation and human resources policies; (b) compensation for senior officers, including the CEO (the "CEO"); and (c) succession and development of senior officers, including the CEO.

B. COMPOSITION, PROCEDURES AND ORGANIZATION

1. The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") shall appoint the members of the Committee and the Chair each year. The Board may at any time remove or replace any member of the Committee and may fill any vacancy in the Committee.
2. The Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board, all of whom shall be independent as defined by the securities laws, rules, regulations and guidelines of all applicable securities regulatory authorities, including without limitation the securities commissions in each of the provinces and territories of Canada, and stock exchanges on which the Company's securities are listed, including without limitation the Toronto Stock Exchange and the Nasdaq Global Market, subject to any exemptions provided thereunder. The Chair of the Board shall be an ex-officio member of the Committee.
3. If the Chair of the Committee is not present at any meeting of the Committee, one of the other members of the Committee present at the meeting shall be chosen by the Committee to preside at the meeting.
4. The Corporate Secretary of the Company shall be the Secretary of the Committee, unless otherwise determined by the Committee.
5. The Committee shall meet regularly each year on such dates and at such locations as the Chair of the Committee shall determine and may also meet at any other time or times on the call of the Chair of the Committee or any two of the other members.
6. The quorum for meetings shall be a majority of the members of the Company, present in person or by telephone or other telecommunication device that permits all persons participating in the meeting to speak and to hear each other. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent of its members.

7. Notice of the time and place of every meeting shall be given ~~in~~ writing or by e-mail or facsimile communication to each member of the Committee at least 24 hours prior to the time fixed for such meeting; provided, however, that a member may in any manner waive a notice of a meeting and attendance of a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where a member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.
8. The Chair shall develop and set the Committee's agenda, in consultation with other members of the Committee, the Board and management, as necessary. The agenda and information concerning the business to be conducted at each Committee meeting shall, to the extent practical, be communicated to the members of the Committee sufficiently in advance of each meeting to permit meaningful review.
9. The Committee shall have the power to delegate its authority and duties to subcommittees or individual members of the Committee as it considers appropriate.
10. In discharging its responsibilities, the Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company.
11. At the invitation of the Chair, one or more officers or employees of the Company may, and if required by the Committee shall, attend a meeting of the Committee.
12. The Committee shall fix its own procedure at meetings, keep records of its proceedings and report to the Board when the Committee may deem appropriate (but not later than the next meeting of the Board).
13. The Committee shall annually assess its performance and review this charter and the calendar of activities, attached as Appendix A, and to submit any recommended changes thereto for approval by the Board of Directors.

C. OUTSIDE CONSULTANTS AND ADVISORS

The Committee, when it considers it necessary or advisable, may retain, at the Company's expense, outside consultants or advisors to assist or advise the Committee independently on any matter within its mandate. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any such consultants or advisors, including sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms for such persons.

In particular, the Committee shall approve the retention of any consultant engaged to assist the Company in reviewing executive compensation and shall have responsibility for approving any comparator group to be used for benchmarking executive compensation. Such authority and responsibility may be delegated by the Committee to the Chair if considered appropriate but may not be delegated to management. In selecting, or receiving advice from, a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee, other than in-house legal counsel, the Committee will take into consideration the following factors:

- (i) the provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;

(ii) the amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;

(iii) the policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;

(iv) any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with a member of the Committee;

(v) any stock of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and

(vi) any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the adviser with a senior officer of the Company; provided that consideration of such factors need not be determinative of the selection of the desired consultant or advisor.

D. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The following functions shall be the common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities as outlined in the “Purpose” section of this Charter. These functions should serve as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be appropriate in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions. The Committee shall also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board from time to time related to the purposes of the Committee as outlined in the “Purpose” section of this Charter.

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall be as follows:

1. to ensure that the Company has in place programs to attract and develop management of the highest calibre and a process to provide for the orderly succession of senior officers including the receipt of the CEO’s recommendations, including conducting an annual review of the succession and development plans for the CEO and other senior officers;
2. to develop and maintain a position description for the CEO and to assess the performance of the CEO against such position description and the CEO’s goals and objectives;
3. to review and recommend for approval by the Board the compensation philosophy and structure, including short- and long-term incentive plans, for the CEO and the other senior officers of the Company and to oversee the implementation and administration of compensation policies and programs concerning the following:
 - (a) executive compensation, contracts, incentive plans, retirement plans and other benefits; and
 - (b) proposed personnel changes involving officers reporting to the CEO;

4. to review and recommend for approval by the Board the ~~annual~~ salary, short- and long-term incentive awards and other benefits, direct and indirect, including targets tied to corporate goals and personal objectives, for the CEO and the other senior officers (after considering the recommendations of the CEO) and, for greater certainty, to ensure that the CEO and other senior officers are not present during voting deliberations on such matters;
5. to identify any risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices that could be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company and ensure that any compensation policies and practices that could encourage individuals within the Company to take inappropriate or excessive risks are identified and mitigated;
6. to receive from the CEO recommendations concerning annual compensation policies and budgets for all non-union employees;
7. to review the Company's policies and programs on compensation for all employees, including those relating to pensions and benefits;
8. to review the Company's overall labour relations strategy for organized employees and review the labour relations environment for the Company and report to the Board with respect to any issues arising therefrom;
9. to review the adequacy and form of the compensation of Directors and to ensure that the compensation realistically reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being an effective Director, and to report and make recommendations to the Board accordingly;
10. to review the executive compensation disclosure, including the Compensation Discussion and Analysis, to be contained in the Management Information Circular for any meeting of the shareholders and recommend its approval by the Board of Directors;
11. to receive reports regarding the Company's pension, retirement and savings plans and to consider and recommend to the Board approval of any changes in the Company's pension, retirement and savings plans, as such changes relate to compensation and benefits; and
12. to monitor compensation trends and issues generally and particularly as they relate to the industry in which the Company operates.
